The Ladies of Greensboro, N. C.

In few places in the South has so much energy and liberality been shown as in Greensboro, North Carolina. The ladies there have already forwarded for the hospitals and army in Virginia, more than thirty boxes and packages, containing wines, cordials, pickles, fruit, rice, sugar, tea, clothing, sheets, pillow-cases, linen, and many other articles adapted to wants of our gallant soldiers; and their contributions are by no means exhausted—they are still coming forward. If each town in the Southern Confederacy should give on the same scale, our army would hardly know a want.—Rich. Dispatch.

Dr. John A. Jordan, a native of North Carolina, and a prominent citizen of Arkansas, died at Little Rock, on Sunday, the 15th instant.

TAPPEY & LUMSDEN,

PETERSBURG, VA.

PATENTED MARCH 1861

FRANKLINTON, N. C. MARCH 18, 1861.

1861.—Messrs. Tappey & Lumsden, Gentlemen:—

The Hub Horse Power which I bought of you last Spring, and which you warranted me to thresh my wheat as well as to run my Cotton Gin, has exceeded my expectations by far. I first took it into the field to thresh my wheat which it did with much ease to the house. Then I took it into the gin House to drive my Cotton Gin with forty sacks which I can drive easily with four horses, and pick six thousand pounds seed cotton per day. I removed your machine to my brother's farm, because in my opinion it is the best power of its kind in use.

Yours truly,

REUBEN WILDER.
